DIRECTORY OF GAME OFFICIALS AND ORGANIZATIONS ISSUED

For the convenience of game authorities, bird-protection organizations, and others in procuring information concerning game and game laws, the twenty-sixth annual Directory of Officials and Organizations Concerned with the Protection of Birds and Game has been issued by the Biological Survey as United States Department of Agriculture Circular 360. The organization and personnel of governmental establishments in this country, Canada, and Mexico concerned with game matters are given, together with the names and addresses of officials of State-wide game and bird protective associations and societies, and of the principal national organizations interested in bird protection, including the advisory board, migratory-bird treaty act.

Legislative changes affecting game administration made during the year are noted, especially the appointment of the Alaska Game Commission of five members. The circular may be obtained while the supply lasts by applying to the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C.
